From: Director, U.S. Naval Intelligence School
To: Director of Training, Central Intelligence Agency

Subj: Guest Lecturers; request for

1. During recent years, the Director of Training, Central Intelligence Agency, has been most cooperative in providing excellent guest lecturers for the U.S. Naval Intelligence School lectern. The curriculum for the School's nine-month Postgraduate Course commences this September, and lecturers are now being scheduled through October. Forty-four (44) officer students, all cleared for Top Secret, will be in attendance.

2. It is requested that lecturers be made available to address the student body at the following times and on the following subjects:

- ✓ Thurs 11 Sept (0930-1000)
Wednesday, 10 September 1958 (0930-1150) - "The National Security Council and the U.S. Intelligence Community"
- ✓ Wednesday, 1 October 1958 (1030-1230) - "Sketching".

3. The first of these lectures was presented to the Postgraduate Class last year by [redacted] presented the same material in an hour's lecture last June to the School's Reserve Intelligence Refresher Class. Both gentlemen did an extremely excellent job, and either one would be most welcome as guest lecturer. It is hoped that [redacted] will be available to give his usual fine presentation on the subject of "Sketching".
